THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to aid housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O. Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same.

STAMP DUTIES.

PENALTIES UNDER SCHEDULE B.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who makes, signs or issues, or who causes to be made, signed, or issued, any paper of any kind or description whatever, or who accepts, negotiates, or pays, or causes to be accepted, negotiated, or paid, any bill of exchange, draft or order, or promissory note, for the payment of money, without the same being duly stamped, or having thereupon an adhesive stamp denoting the tax chargeable thereon, cancelled in the manner required by law.

A penalty of two hundred dollars is imposed upon every person who pays, negotiates, or offers in payment, or receives or takes in payment, any bill of exchange or order for the payment of any sum of money, drawn or purporting to be drawn in a foreign country, but payable in the United States, until the proper stamp has been affixed thereto.

A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed upon every person who fraudulently makes use of an adhesive stamp to denote the duty required by the Revenue Act, without effectually cancelling and obliterating the same in the manner required by law.

If any person shall wilfully remove or cause to be removed, alter or cause to be altered, the cancelling or defacing marks on any adhesive stamp, with intent to use the same, or to cause the use of the same, after it shall have been once used, or shall knowingly or wilfully sell or buy such washed or restored stamps, or offer the same for sale, or give or expose the same to any person for use, or knowingly use the same or prepare the same with intent for the further use thereof, or if any person shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any washed, restored or altered stamps, which have been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument or writing, then, and in every such case, every person so offending, and every person knowingly and wilfully aiding, abetting or assisting in committing any such offense aforesaid, shall on conviction thereof, * * * be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment and confinement to hard labor not exceeding five years or both, at the discretion of the court.

It is reported that persons in various parts of the country, and under various pretexts, are collecting cancelled stamps and, as it is believed, for the purpose of removing the cancelling marks therefrom and preparing them for further use.

All revenue officers are expected and hereby directed to give this matter their special attention; to acquaint the people with the true object for which such stamps are collected, and with the penalties incurred by all who in any way knowingly and wilfully aid, abet, and assist in the commission of the offense. It is believed that many stamps are gathered from persons who are ignorant of the use to which they are to be put, and innocent of all intent to defraud the revenue.

The fact that a person is collecting stamps which have once been used is sufficient to arouse strong suspicion, and calls for an immediate investigation; and the possession of washed, restored, or altered stamps is prima facie evidence of guilt. No pains should be spared to insure the detection and punishment of guilty parties.

It is not lawful to record any instruments, documents, or paper required by law to be stamped, or any copy thereof, unless a stamp or stamps of the proper amount have been affixed and cancelled in the manner required by law; and such instrument or copy and the record thereof are utterly null and void, and cannot be used or admitted as evidence in any court until the defect has been cured as provided in section 158.

All wilfull violations of the law should be reported to the United States District Attorney within and for the district where they are committed.

GENERAL REMARKS RELATIVE TO STAMP DUTIES.

The validity of a deed is a question for the courts.

It is one of importance to the parties, but not to this office, any further than the insufficiency of the stamp may affect the revenue.

The foregoing is applicable to other instruments as well as to deeds.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

The law does not designate which of the parties to an instrument shall furnish the necessary stamp, nor does the Commissioner of Internal Revenue assume to determine that it shall be supplied by one party rather than by another; but it an instrument subject to a stamp duty is issued without having the necessary stamps affixed thereto, it cannot be recorded, or admitted, or used as evidence in any court, until a legal stamp or stamps, denoting the amount of tax, shall have been affixed as prescribed by law, and the person who thus issues it is liable to a penalty if he omits the stamps with an intent to evade the provisions of the Internal Revenue Act.

Instruments issued in the States lately in insurrection, prior to the surrender, or prior to the establishment of collection districts there, are subject to the same taxes as similar ones issued at the same time in the other States.

No stamp is necessary upon an instrument executed prior to October 1st, 1862, to make it admissible in evidence, or to entitle it to record.

The stamp tax upon a fire insurance policy is based upon the premium.

Deposit notes taken by a mutual fire insurance company, not as payment of premium nor as evidence of indebtedness therefor, but to be used simply as a basis upon which to make ratable assessments to meet the losses incurred by the company, should not be reckoned as premium in determining the amount of stamp taxes upon policies.

When a policy of insurance properly stamped has been issued and lost, no stamp is necessary upon another issue by the same company to the same party, covering the same property, time &c., and designed simply to supply the loss. The second policy should recite the loss of the first.

An instrument which operates as the renewal of a policy of insurance is subject to the same stamp tax as the policy.

When a policy of insurance is issued for a certain time, whether it be for one year only, or for a term of years, a receipt for premium, or any other instrument which has the legal effect to continue the contract and extend its operation beyond that time requires the same amount of revenue stamps as the policy itself, but such a receipt as is usually given for the payment of the monthly, quarterly, and annual premium, is not a renewal within the meaning of the statute. The payment simply prevents the policy from expiring, by non-performance of its conditions; a receipt given for such a payment requires a two cent stamp, if the amount exceeds twenty dollars and a two-cent only. When, however, the time of payment has passed, and a tender of the premium is not sufficient to bind the company, but a new policy, or a new contract in some form, with the mutuality essential to every contract, becomes necessary between the insurer and the insured. The same amount of stamps should be used as that required upon the original policy. A permit issued by a life insurance company changing the terms of a policy as to travel, residence, occupation &c., should be stamped on a contract or agreement.

When a subscription is for a purpose in which there is a community of interest among the subscribers, the list should be stamped as a contract, or agreement, at the rate of five cents for each sheet or piece of paper upon which it is written.

When there is no community of interest, and the subscription is conditional, each signer executes a separate contract, requiring its appropriate amount of stamps; this amount depends upon the number of sheets or pieces of paper upon which the contract is written.

When each of the subscribers contract to pay a certain and definite sum of money on demand, or at a time designated, the separate contract of each should be stamped at the same rate as a promissory note.

A marriage certificate issued by the officiating clergyman or magistrate, to be retained to any officer of the State, county, city, town or other municipal corporation, to constitute a part of the public record, requires no stamp; but if it is to be retained by the parties, a five cent stamp should be affixed.

A stamp tax upon a bill of sale, by which any ship or vessel, or any part thereof is conveyed to, or vested in any other person or persons at the same rate as that imposed upon conveyances of realty sold; a bill of sale of any other personal property should be stamped as a contract or agreement.

An assignment of real or personal property, or of both, for the benefit of creditors, should be stamped as an agreement or contract.

A bond to convey real estate requires stamps to the amount of twenty-five cents.

A mere copy of an instrument is not subject to stamp duty unless it is a certified one, in which case a five cent stamp should be affixed to the certificate of the person attesting it, but when an instrument is executed and issued in duplicate triplicate, &c., as in the case of a lease of two or more parties, each part has the same legal effect as the other, and each should be stamped as an original. Commissioner.

A Umatilla Democrat on the Situation.

UMATILLA, Aug. 1, 1867.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Having noticed a letter in your abolition paper signed "Observer" wherein the writer attempts to give a correct account of the doings of the Democratic Convention that assembled here on the 25th ult, I want to give the Democracy a little show by publishing this, partly in answer and partly expounding some of the high prerogatives of Democrats. The time was when we could hold a Convention on this side of the Cascades without being called in question for our principles and sentiments. This was the good old time when Col. Gates and Judge Humason worked in the same buggy; but about that time the Judge bolted and let some of the outsiders into the mysteries which had always enveloped our party, and the few Radicals made bold by their new leader, have since made it a point to spy us out in our secret assemblies. Bad luck to the Judge after telling the Rad's all he knows and found it did not pay to run with them, he comes back to us and undertakes to run the Democratic machine in partnership with Col. Gates again, who, every one knows, has been consistent all the time in his opposition to the abolitionists, and has always stood by the Constitution.

Humason cut the party in 1862, and he cut back again in 1864—that was the most unkind cut of all, for he has cut out from office our best men who stood the heat and brunt of the battle when Democracy was at a low ebb. But wait a little, and we will pay him off for his recreancy to principle and the sentiments of true Democracy.

O, Democracy! soul-inspiring word!—next in the hearts of the Patriots to the "Constitution." Next? no, first and foremost in our hearts are Democratic principles—but we ain't obliged to let all outsiders know what Democratic principles are, till the dear people have voted for our nominees, and this is one of the weaknesses of Judge Humason—that for two years he let the abolitionists into our secrets—may he never do it more; as President Johnson says, "let that pass."

Now I ask you, where are our liberties? No more Conventions except their sanctity is invaded by abolitionists—to publish to the world our little differences of opinion. Where, I ask, are our liberties, when we as Democrats, mingle (some from Prairie army, some from Federal Bastiles, and some from Oregon), each animated by the desire to overthrow an unconstitutional Congress and unconstitutional abolitionists generally? Whither are we tending? Do you want your sister to marry a nigger? If not, support the Democracy, for that is one of our dearest principles not to make a nigger our equal. It is well enough to let the nigger buy our clothes to go to the Legislature with; but they must never be our equals. Ain't this a white man's government? and if elections don't go our way, haint we a right to rebel as long as it is written in the Constitution, or if it aint written just that way, aint that what it means when it is interpreted Democratically? And as Mr. Dow says, if those things don't go on according to Democracy and the Constitution, we will appeal to arms.

Again, I say, where are our liberties, Democratically speaking? Ams niggers in the Legislature of Massachusetts? and aint niggers allowed to practice as lawyers in the U. S. courts? Now, where is your liberty, Democratically speaking, I ask? And aint niggers going to vote in the land of obivuary? When the glorious eagle shrieks, its voice is heard by free niggers. Haint niggers been buried wrapped up in that glorious old flag? And don't the abolitionists sing, "Old John Brown is marching on," in Virginny? Aint the abolitionists tore down the whipping posts in Carlisy? And aint they learning the niggers read and write, and allowing them to hold property, sue and be sued? And can you call this a free country, when such things are allowed? I answer, Democratically, no! these things make the negro our equal.

In this view of things, what greater incentive can Democrats have to go to work to regain our lost liberties and make things normal again? Democratic conventions may fail to do their duty, but the great Democratic heart is as hopeful and exultant as it was after the battle of Bull Run.

AN IMMENSE MINE.—The Virginia City Treasure gives the following account of the Savage mine:

For the fiscal year ending June 1st, 1867, there were mined 72 295 tons of ore, which averaged in value $41 94 per ton—making the product of bullion to reach the sum of $3,000,000. In 1865 the ore mined was less than half this amount; and the result, to Mr. Bonner, present Superintendent, is very flattering, for while the old management paid for mining and reduction $34,80 per ton, he has so improved matters that the cost has been reduced to about $22—making a net gain to the company yearly of about $9000,000. The company furnishes profitable employment to at least 1,000 people, in the mine, mill and other places. the Savage is to day the largest and most profitable mine in the world; and, besides, there is enough known ore in sight to insure the same flattering success for a year to come as has been made in the year past.

PRINTING WITHOUT INK.—Among the curious inventions in the Paris Exhibition is a process for printing without ink. According to the London Premiers' Register the system was invented by a Frenchman named M. Gustave Lebeyer, and the specimen on exhibition contains 145 letters in seven different kinds of types and two colors—red and black—composed and 100 copies printed all in three minutes. The printing was done in 32 seconds! M. Lebeyer has taken out a patent in England, as well as other countries. His machines appear to be chiefly intended for cards and bills, letter-heads, etc. The time expended in the usual inking process must of course be saved in the working of hand machines. The colors are good and well printed. A chemical paper or other fabric or thin the card or paper to be printed on, and the types are rapidly stamped on this endless chemical band, which impresses the color on the card. The band lasts for several days in constant work and costs only about three halfpence sterling.

A very amiable and modest widow lady lived in a certain county. Soon after her husband had paid the debt of Nature, leaving her his legatee, a claim was brought against the estate by his brother, and a process served upon her by the Sheriff of the county, who happened to be a widower of middle age. She was much alarmed, and meeting with a female friend, she exclaimed with agitation, "What do you think? the Sheriff has been after me!" Well, said the considerate l

Disgusted.

The editor of the Albany Democrat, like all thorough-going, straightforward members of his party, is hugely disgusted with the action had at the late Convention at Umatilla. He prefaces an elaborate or elongated article on the subject with an emphatic remark about a "a great cry and little wool."—which is evidently about as disparaging a remark as he knows how to make. He informs the policy-hating portion of the Democracy that he has "read the resolutions over carefully and critically," and that he does not hesitate to "confess to a feeling of disappointment as to the political aspect of the platform." After characterizing the resolutions as "tame and wishy-washy," the editor of the Democrat proceeds this wise:

The Convention renewed its "adherence to the ancient principles of Democracy," but thought it was bad policy to specify. We had supposed, from the flourish of trumpets prior to the meeting of the Convention, that this hesitating policy-dodge would be discarded altogether; and that we should have a Platform possessed of some spirit and back-bone. Why did not the Convention denounce Negro Equality? Why were they silent upon the question of exempting State bonds from taxation? Why did they not speak out boldly on all the vital questions now agitating the country?

Why, indeed? For the same reason we have heretofore set forth, that the Convention was captured by some politicians who, for the sake of expediency, suppressed true Democratic principles, and presented an expression of the real views of the members. The Democrat has a right to complain. A platform wholly without "spirit and backbone!" A platform that is silent on "negro equality!" A Democratic Convention got together with a "flourish of trumpets," yet not saying one word about the "nigger!" No wonder the Democrat complains about a lack of "wool." No wonder it is disgusted with the "hesitating policy dodge" that was tried by the Convention. We knew from the first that the "tame" utterances of the Convention were not an expression of the views of the party. We knew that the bed-rock Democracy, comprising three-fourths of the party, would be dissatisfied with the whole thing. The Democrat continues:

If U. S. bonds be not taxed, we are for the repudiation of the entire Federal debt. Why didn't the Umatilla Convention take this ground? We are in favor of a square stand-up fight in the future. No more policy dodges for us, if you please. No more compromising. Let us have a clean victory, or a clean defeat.

There we have it! Repudiation is the watch-word. As the Supreme Court has decided repeatedly that U. S. bonds can not be taxed, repudiation, according to the Democrat and its party, is the only thing that remains. But the Umatilla Convention failed to take this ground. Why? Not because there was a person present who did not hold these very same views, but because it was deemed impolitic to let them be publicly avowed. The Umatilla Convention was simply an attempt to deceive a part of the Republican party. And, and nothing more. But Republicans will not be deceived. Every person of observation knows that there is not one Democrat in a hundred but who agrees fully with the views expressed by their organ at Albany.

In Trouble.

The tribulations of the "third party" in California are pitiful to behold. Probably no set of men ever had so much difficulty in securing candidates for office. Dissatisfied with the nominations made at the Union Convention in June, they called another convention of their own, when assembled, consisted of thirty-eight members all told; and of these two-thirds were from San Francisco and Sacramento. They nominated Dr. Ellis for Governor, but he positively declined the distinguished honor; and their Committee has filled the vacancy with the name of Fay, one of their own clique of whose acceptance they will have no doubt. Mark Hopkins, who was nominated for Secretary of State also flatly declined and is out for the regular ticket and the Committee has been compelled to supply his place with another name. A rumor is also prevalent that J. [illegible], their candidate for Controller, declines. This leaves the party without any regularly nominated candidate except the nominee for the office of State Printer. All this is ridiculous. Trying for a party that has boasted that it was going to carry the State. Nothing could be more ridiculous than its present position. It is evident that the opposition to the regular ticket is dwindling very slim. The "third party" will not get 5,000 votes in the whole State, and probably the candidates may become sufficiently aware of the ridiculousness of their situation to withdraw entirely before the election.

A Confederate paper up the valley prints a synopsis of one of Senator Williams' in order to put the Senator "on the record." That is very good. The paper referred to evidently thinks that Williams will be mortally frightened at the idea of getting on the "record" in favor of Congressional reconstruction. Some have supposed that a person who had taken so prominent a part in this matter as Williams has done, was on the "record" already, long before the Albany paper thought to embalm him by putting him there. Williams, in company with every other faithful Senator, may safely abide by the record he has made.

The Chicago papers in editorial comments on General Rawlins' late speech at Galena, say in an authoritative way that it fully reflects the views and policies and opinions of General Grant. If this is so, there certainly can be no question as to where General Grant stands on the great issues of the day.

What is the Matter?—The Herald has been issued for two days without containing a word of ah — of the Methodists. Something unusual must be the matter when that paper omits for two issues to rail at the Methodist Church.

FROM PUGET SOUND.

OLYMPIA, Aug. 4, 1868.

On Wednesday evening last, about 9 o'clock, a brilliant meteor was observed at this place, passing slowly from South to North.

The block of lots on which stands the old Catholic church, was sold by Bishop Blanchet to Mr. E. Giddings, a few days since. The building will be moved and fitted up for other purposes.

A man named Levi Livingstone, committed suicide on the 26th ult., at Camano Island, by shooting himself with a pistol, whilst under a fit of temporary insanity.

Among the several prospecting parties out in the mountains this season, some have gone to La Shair, a tributary of the Nisqually, and rising in the vicinity of Mt. Rainier. Rumors of rich diggings struck there have been in circulation for a few days; but they are rumors only, and nothing authentic.

It seems to be generally understood that the Insane Asylum of this Territory has been shamefully mismanaged the past year. It was let out by contract, at so much a head for its inmates, to the lowest bidder, at the rate of seven dollars in currency each, per month, which is not sufficient for the purpose. Other bids were offered, but they were higher. The result of this must have been foreshadowed, as the Sisters of Charity had had them before at a higher rate, and were not sufficiently remunerated. It is to be hoped that the coming Legislature will see that these poor unfortunates are better treated another year; that those who take care of them are proper persons, and that these persons receive sufficient pay in time; and also to stop all repeat bills and all chances for contractors to depict any in such cases.

"Da resolutions are passed prim con," was the decision of a negro criminal at Richmond."

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, Aug 7.—The bark Monitor with a cargo of lumber, sailed for San Francisco to-day.

The st amer Fidelater arrived this morning from Bellingham Bay.

Mr. George Pearkes et as Commissioner, yesterday, to take evidence in the matter of the loss of the steamer Transport, on the west coast of the Island, in November last.

STATE ITEMS.

Yamhill county has a Bible Society. It is at present located at McMinnville.

Meacham Bros.' "Pioneer Stage Stable" at Lee's Encampment was burned to the ground about 2 o'clock on the morning of the 3d inst. There were eight horses in the stable, one of which was burned, together with hay, grain, and eight sets of harness. The total loss was about $1,500. The origin of the fire was unknown.

The Courier publishes the following statistics of McMinnville: Number of families, 69; number of inhabitants, 284; number of professors, 91; Baptist, 23; Methodist, 17; Cumberland Presbyterian, 10; Christians, 11; Catholics, 7; Episcopalians, 4. Number of Bibles in families, 150, Testaments, 125. Number of Sabbath School scholars, 116

The Albany Journal says: On Tuesday last, the steamer Echo took on board for Portland, from the warehouse of Beach & Monteith, one hundred and fifty bags of wool, and left 8,000 lbs in store, which has since been added to by nearly a hundred bales. Most of this wool came from Eugene by wagons, because the low stage of water would not allow the boats to safely load at any point above Albany. We hear that this stock of wool is destined for San Francisco.

The Lafayette Courier gives the following particulars of a late atrocious case that has come to light in Yamhill county. The names of the parties are for the present withheld: A lad ing answering to the description of a man, came to this county last fall from California and stopped with his brother who resides in the vicinity of McMinnville. The brother had a daughter who is now about 17 years of age. Illicit intercourse is said to have been the uncle and niece. Anscente is the consequence. Within a few days past, and when the evidence of the incestuous commerce had between them could be no longer concealed, the parties (uncle and niece) left in the night time, on foot passed through Lafayette about daylight on the morning following, and are last heard from at Dayton, where they passed for man and wife, and took the boat for Salem.

They are determined to have a quarin excitement at Albany. The Journal of Monday says: The Santiam quarts excitement of a couple of weks ago has drawn attention to all the neglected specimens of rock which have been either discarded as worthless in times past, or held until something might be developed in the locality where they were obtained. In one instance of the kind, a resident here had a few nuggets of rock which he got in the Cascade range, about sixty miles from here, two or three years ago; and when the Santiam excitement broke out, he brought them forth for examination. Mr. Gunter tested the specimen and proved the presence of silver in the rock to an extent that is considered a paying result; this has started a company out to the lode, accompanied by the original discoverer, who are determined to push matters if the plum is there.

The Carson (Nev.) Appeal nominates Senator Williams of Oregon, for the Vice Presidency, remarking as follows: "We believe it is a part of history that Williams is the originator of the Military Reconstruction Act, and that to his excellent qualities as a law maker, is the country indebted for the Tenure of Office Bill. Those laws are the work of a thorough statesman—a man of comprehension and broad scope of thought. And, since the American people have been taught the lesson that the Vice Presidency is not a mere decoy to catch doubtful votes with, but a position which stands but one frail life's remove from our dearest interests, none but the best quality of material will ever honor of the be used to fill it with. Of this sort we believe Senator Williams to be. We come to this conclusion from some personal knowledge of the man, and a somewhat careful attention to his career as a Senator.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The Council met last evening, Dr. J. A. Chapman, the lately elected Mayor, presiding. Present—Messrs. Besser, Burch, Fechheimer, Hallock, Porter and Ripley.

MESSAGE OF THE MAYOR.

The following message from the Mayor was read:

To the Honorable, the Common Council:

Being called somewhat unexpectedly to fill the vacancy in the office of Mayor, occasioned by the death of my predecessor, I beg leave to assure you of my cordial co-operation in your efforts to advance the best interests of the city.

The charter provides that the Mayor shall communicate by message to the Council a general statement of the condition and affairs of this Municipal Corporation, and recommend the adoption of such measures as he may deem expedient and proper. The short time that has elapsed since my election has prevented my giving the details of the affairs of the city that attention that the importance of the subject would seem to demand.

The report of the Auditor, published by your direction a few days since, shows the financial affairs of the city to be in a very satisfactory condition. The nett balance in the General Fund July 1st ($8,237 32,) with the amounts to be collected from licenses and other sources, is estimated to be amply sufficient to defray the ordinary expenses of the city government during the present year.

The views of my lamented predecessor as to the urgent necessity of strict economy in all the affairs of the city, I heartily [illegible]; while I am not in favor of withholding appropriations that are necessary to materially advance the prosperity of the city, I am of the opinion that no projects should be entertained involving the expenditure of any considerable sum during the present year, and the ordinary expenses should be reduced wherever practicable, it being desirable in the present depressed condition of business to keep the taxes at the lowest possible figure consistent with the prompt payment of all just demands against the city.

The condition of the fund created for the improvement of the navigation of the Willamette river has been reported to you, and the message of my predecessor contains the correspondence with the officers of the United States, now having the work in charge, to fresh in your memories. Every facility in your power should be extended to the officers of the Government to secure a rapid and efficient prosecution of the work, upon which depends so largely the material interests of not only our own city, but the whole State. It is thought that the appropriations already made by Congress will not be sufficient to complete the work, and I would recommend that such action be taken as may be deemed necessary to secure a further appropriation, and I doubt not if proper representations be made the general government will purchase the boats and machinery now owned by the city, and possibly relieve the city from the debt contracted for constructing the apparatus and prosecuting the work during the years 1866 and 1866, and for which bonds payable in 1871 have been issued to the amount of $20,000 under an ordinance approved May, 1866, the interest upon which ($2,400 per annum) should be carefully provided for.

I am confident that you, in common with our citizens generally, feel a just pride in the Fire Department of this city. The promptitude, discipline and self sacrificing devotion of its members entitles it to be ranked among the best in the Union. The department is well supplied with apparatus, the most of which the Chief Engineer reports in good order, and I would recommend that the houses, engines and apparatus be placed in complete repair, and the department encouraged in every practicable manner to strive to maintain its present high standard of excellence.

A sufficient time has elapsed since its first introduction to warrant the expression of an opinion as to the merits of the Nicholson pavement, and I but express the general sentiment of our citizens in saying that it is better adapted to our wants than any other, and that as a general rule, upon our principal streets no other should be accepted as a permanent improvement.

I am informed that the improvement of a portion of Second street is contemplated during the present season, by a system of planking and graveling, which is expected to answer the purpose for a few years when the foundation will be in good condition to receive the Nicholson, the extra expense of which, during the present prostration in business, is considered a sufficient objection to its adoption at this time; although my preferences are in favor of the Nicholson, I concur in the opinion that the proposed plan is the best that can be adopted under the circumstances, and would recommend that the work on this and other streets the improvement of which is contemplated be pushed forward to completion prior to the commencement of the rainy season.

I would also recommend that the unplanked portion of Front street be placed in complete repair before the fall rains.

Side walks upon streets, the improvement of which is not at present contemplated, having been laid to a considerable extent during the present season, it is to be hoped that property holders will in this respect keep in advance of the permanent improvements. I would recommend that the manner in which sidewalks should be built, and the material to be used, be defined by ordinance, and that sidewalks conforming thereto, and upon the proper grade, be accepted as a part of any improvement that may be hereafter ordered.

I beg leave to call your attention to the awning posts upon the sidewalks on Front, First and other streets, many of which are two or more feet inside of the curb, and may be considered a nuisance, and one which I hope you will take measures to abate, by providing for their removal to or near the curb, and also provide for the more effectual enforcement of the ordinances in relation to obstructing the sidewalks.

I have touched but briefly and in a general manner upon the principal topics that have presented themselves to my mind, for the reasons before stated, that my time and opportunities for becoming thoroughly posted has been limited, reserving to myself the privilege of more fully submitting my views by special communications as I may require.

In conclusion, allow me beg your indulgence, and that of my fellow-citizens, for any shortcomings that may be apparent during my administration, assuring you and them that it will be my endeavor to prove myself a worthy successor of him whose loss we deplore.

J. A. CHAPMAN, Mayor.

Mr. Hallock offered a resolution which was adopted, directing the Auditor to issue an alias warrant for the collection of delinquent assessments for the improvement of Front and North Front street.

The Council adjourned.

REOPENING OF SCHOOLS.—As will be seen by advertisement this morning, the Sisters' schools in this city will reopen their studies on the 19th inst. In consequence of the increasing demand for teachers to attend to the other schools in charge of this community, at Jacksonville, Salem, St. Paul's and the Dalles, the Sisters are unable to continue their boys' school, on Third street. In order that pupils may have the benefit of exercise in music, the Sisters have purchased a parlor organ for the use of their day scholars.

COMPLAINTS TO BE HEARD.—A chinaman called Jo. made a complaint yesterday before Recorder Hoffman, charging Jacob Konig and another, name unknown, with throwing stones at the complainant's house and breaking the windows. The hearing is set for ten o'clock this morning. Later in the day an hour that Mr. Konig had filed a complaint against several Chinawomen living on the corner of Alder and Second streets for keeping a bawdy house. It is to be hoped that his information and that Mr. Konig will prosecute the charge to conviction. There is a terrible nest of disreputable Chinawomen about that locality, and there are most intolerable nuisances. It may be unmanly to throw stones at their windows, but very few decent people will be disposed to blame Mr. Konig or anybody else for attempts to drive them away. If the law winks at the existence of these noisome and pestilent places in the very heart of the town, respectable people owning residences near, may have to take measures of their own to abate them.

COUNTY COURT.—In this Court yesterday, the following proceedings were had

Estate of John Sanderson deceased, James Terwilliger appointed Administrator. C. B. Bitter, Wm. B Bain and W S Caldwell, appraisers.

J F Shattuck was appointed Inspector of Salmon for Multnomah county

THIRD NIGHT OF THE OPERA.—The popular operas of Lucrezia Borgia, Il Bucio and Lenani were presented last evening by the Bianchi troupe, to a fuller house than on either their previous performances here. Not being present, we can only say from hearsay that the audience manifested unusual delight at Signorina Bellini's singing, especially in Lucrezia Borgia. She received the flattering testimonial of a shower of bouquets, upon the stage.

THROWN FROM A BUGGY.—A couple of ladies were thrown from a buggy at the corner of Stark and First streets, last evening, by the running of the wheels against the curb. They were taken into Dr. Harlleb's drug store, where it was ascertained that neither had sustained any serious injury. No names were learned.

TOO MANY ADJECTIVES.—The item in yesterday morning's paper concerning the complimentary benefit to Signorina Eugenia Bellini, for last evening was not written by the local editor of this paper. We are not so deeply "struck", as is the impressible young man who did write it, by request, after the Local had gone home.

A CHANCE TO JOIN A CLUB.—Several of the members of the Wide-Awake base ball club, having left the city and thereby vacated their membership, the list is now open to applicants. Persons desiring to join the club will please leave their names at this office. We learn incidentally that there are nine or ten vacancies.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—Arrived per steamer Senator, from Oregon City, Monday, August 7th: 10 boxes fruit, 1 trunk, 1 box mdse, 8 boxes eggs, 6 cases bacon, 22 gunnies do, 13 cases lard, 5 bbl bbls produce, 16 boxes do, 1 pkge mdse, 446 qr sks flour, 3 cows and calves.

ATTENTION YOUNG AMERICA.—You will meet at your grounds on Market Square, this evening at 5 o'clock, for practice. All members are desired to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—The day was occupied yesterday, in concluding the testimony in the case of Davidson vs Pittock. The argument of counsel will be delivered this morning.

OPERA TROUPE GOING TO SALEM.—Signor Bianchi's Opera troupe will leave this morning for Salem, where they will perform one or two nights. Prof. James Gone, pianist, will go with them.

LADIES, ATTENTION!—Barman Bros. have on hand Indian rubber neck-ties for ladies, and sell them for fifty cents each. Call and see them, if you please.

PIONEER BASE BALL boys are urged to come out for practice this afternoon at five o'clock. Every man is wanted on the ground.

PERSONAL EXPENDITURES.—Such were our feelings as we stepped into the Music and Art Gallery of W. T. SHANAHAN, on First street, a few days since, and listened to the delightful tones and harmony which came from one of Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs. From the soft breathing flute tones to the thundering bass of the pipe organ, all was equally free and sweet. And why is it other makers cannot produce instruments like these? Mason & Hamlin were the first to introduce the Cabinet Organ, and have gained such world-wide notoriety that it requires the work of two large factories to supply the demand for these valuable instruments.

Gov. Woods, in his Siskiyou county speech, took up the Civil Rights, Freedmen's Bureau, and Reconstruction Acts of Congress, explaining them so clearly that it carries conviction to the hearts of all thinking men, that Harman Bros. sell fine Clothing 10 per cent. less than any other store in their line, and put hard to prove it, by calling on them on the corner of Front and Morrison streets (formerly City of Paris Store), Portland. Ten dozen India Rubber Neck Ties left yet and are offered for sale at 50 cents each.

"THE VERY THINGS TO HAVE ABOUT THE HOUSE," is what everybody says of Howe & Stevens' famous Family Dye Colors. What everybody says with so much unanimity and enthusiasm must be true. They are reliable, useful and economical. Sold by Smith & Davis.

Ferns.

In the cool and quiet nooks,
By the side of running brooks;
In the forests green retreat,
With the branches overhead,
Nestling at the green trees feet,
Choose we there our mossy bed.

On tall cliffs that woo the breeze,
Where no human footstep presses,
And no eye our beauty sees,
There we wave our maiden tresses.

In the mouths of mountain caves,
Where the rapid torrent gushes,
Joying in the spray that laves,
As it wildly, foaming rushes

In the clefts of foaming walls,
On old ruins sad and hoary,
Filling up the ancient halls
With a new and verdant glory

Where the shady banks are steepest,
Sheltering from the sunlight's glow,
Loving best the shadiest, deepest,
Where the tallest hedge-rows grow.

In the pleasant woodland glades,
Where the antlered deer are straying,
Lifting there our lofty heads,
There our mimic groves displaying.

Then the treacherous marsh's bosom
Decking with our regal pride,
There alone allowed to blossom
(Soon to all our kin denied).

Though we boast no lovely bloom
That can rival with the flowers;
Though we fling no sweet perfume;
Though no varied hue is ours—

Yet hath Nature framed our race
In a mold so light and fair,
That a beauty and a grace
Shed we round us everywhere.

A Representative Democrat.

The Humboldt (Cal.) Register having lately been captured by a Democrat, the editor participates in the following rebel effusion to show there is one unsubjugated Confederate:

Some of the brainless miscegenation journalists of the country have "flushed" a skunk down in the cypress swamps of Louisiana, and are basking and reveling in the fetid exhalations emitted on the surrounding atmosphere by their new pet. They have unearthed a letter written by Gen. Longstreet, containing niggerism of the very first water; and while rolling the delicious morceau under their festering tongues with demoniac glee, make it the occasion for malignant assaults on the position of the Democratic party. They can not understand why Democrats should denounce the enforcement of the Military Bill over Southern States when such lusty champions of the Confederate cause as Gen. Longstreet are submissively bending their necks to the yoke imposed upon them by the Federal Government. The opinions of Gen. Longstreet, however, have but slight weight with the Democratic party. In their philosophy of the true theory of Governmental policy a skunk is a skunk, and the odor is the same whether emitted among the alligators of Southern swamps or amid the drifting snows of the North.

To which the editor of the Dramatic Chronicle offers the following comments:

Here we have an imposing illustration of the superior valor of the indomitable ink-slinger over the mere brute courage of the soldier who simply faces bayonets and bullets. Yorke gallantly led the charge of his legions at Monocacy against Lew Wallace's brigade through a storm of grape-shot and musketry that decimated his ranks, and he came out of the fight minus an arm. But he has accepted "reconstruction," and even declared that the federal Government has treated its defeated enemies better than they "had any right to expect." Longstreet was brave enough in the field. He marched, counter marched, fasted, fought. He slept on the ground, went for weeks without so much as taking off his boots, or indulging in a square meal, or enjoying three consecutive hours of unbroken sleep, was several times wounded and a score of times in the very jaws of death. But he has had the pusillanimity to write a letter in which he said: "It is our duty to abandon ideas that are obsolete, and conform to the requirements of the law." Yorke and Jeff. Thompson have meanly avowed that they had "enough of fighting." But the fiery souled editors have no such a "belly full," and they are still ready to go on fighting any quantity of campaigns—on paper—so long as the stationery holds out. "Old Pete" Longstreet see fit," says the Humboldt hero "to fall down and worship at the bloody shrine of Abolition; should he embrace and kiss the shrine that letter the limbs and break the spirits of a free born race, he only excites the commiseration of Democrats who can well understand that all men were not constituted to die at the stake as martyrs to a faith." Longstreet and Yorke and Lee and Thompson, have not the nerve and constancy requisite for martyrdom. That pale martyr spirit is only to be found among Northern Democratic editors and politicians. There, the true spirit of martyrdom is to be found. There are the unblanched warriors who will continue to do battle against the Yankee legions even to the last sheet of paper and the last diluted drop of writing fluid and who when their last pens are worn out, with the two doughty hero of Chevy Chase when both his legs were off," still "fight their stumps."

We believe it was Elihu Burritt, the "learned blacksmith," who some years since, declared that the telegraph would do away with the idea that to the end of time the Angel Gabriel would literally have to announce the termination of the world, for the telegraphic lightning travels so much quicker than the sound of a trumpet could go, that it would be pronounced all around this terrestrial ball in advance of him. Just think how it would be if a man could stand on the top of some high mountain and send his voice in every direction to every inhabitant of the earth at once, and you will get the exact idea of what we shall have arrived at when the telegraphic system is completed, and the operator at the great central focus can speak sound upon all radiating lines. The very thought staggers us; the most vivid imagination is baffled; and we sink back from the supposition frustrated, feeling the childhood we are in, but getting a glimpse, as Moses caught a sight of the promised land, of the strength, the perfection the manhood, of those who are to come after us.

A man in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, has a hen which acted so badly toward her progeny that she was put in the collar—whereupon, according to the Express she behaved in the following outrageous manner: On Friday she laid a very large egg. On Saturday she laid three eggs in the afternoon, between half past four and seven o'clock. On Sunday none. On Monday, before seven o'clock in the morning, she laid two eggs. On Tuesday, before seven, two eggs. On Wednesday, between seven and eight o'clock in the morning, two eggs. Thursday she laid three eggs before noon—all perfect and of large size. What she will do in the future remains to be seen.

The Two Sides of the Cretan Story.—A French journal gives an amusing illustration of the familiar truth that "accounts differ." By careful study of the Cretan dispatches it has ascertained that the total loss of the Turks during the present insurrection has been 1,500,000 men; of the insurgents, 40 men. A similar computation, founded on the Turkish dispatches, gives a Cretan loss of 3,000,000 men at the lowest figures, against a Turkish loss of 5. One does not often have to split a wider difference than that.

A Good Bite.—A gentleman angling on the Staffordshire side of the Dove, at Doredale, the other day, threw his line across the stream, the bait was taken, and from the force of the pull he mentio pated a splendid catch. In an instant the rod was dragged out of the fisherman's hand and, casting his eyes across the stream, he saw a cow cushing up be bank on the Derbyshire side of the river with the rod and line dangling at her tail.

A singular and sad accident occurred lately to a little child three years of age at Kinderhook. It was playing near the house, when its mother, who was engaged in her household duties, not seeing it, threw out a dipper full of hot water, which unfortunately descended on the head and neck of her little one, scalding it dreadfully. It lingered for some days in great agony, but death finally relieved it from its sufferings.

An Indian hatchet of stone, and almost as perfect as the day it was cut by its dusky owner, was recently found at Wrightsville, (Pa.) Its size is seven inches by three and a half, and was of river stone, with rather a blunt point, the bit, being ground or rubbed down to a very respectable edge and the sides deeply scored for the insertion or fastening the handle. If this weapon could speak what a tale it might unfold!

The Massachusetts Agricultural College.—The first Agricultural College in this country to be put in active operation is that of Massachusetts, the first term of which will open on the 2d of October next. There are said to be more applications for admission than accommodations. Five buildings are in course of construction, while the college farm of over five hundred acres has been much improved.

Leavenworth, Kansas, is now a city of 30,000 inhabitants; Lawrence of 8,000 or 10,000; Topeka, the capital, 3,000; Osawatamie is a mere village; Manhattan is a thriving town, and Salina is the present terminus of the Pacific Railroad. The population of Kansas is estimated to be about 250,000.

General Schofield's Orders.

The recent orders of Gen. Sheffield, commanding in Virginia, giving instructions as to the method of procedure under the reconstruction law, were deemed by General Grant so good an interpretation of that act that he immediately forwarded them to the other district commanders for their guidance. The orders are stringent, and consequently diametrically opposed to the President's views. They declare the following classes disfranchised.

"All those who were at any time members of Congress, or officers of the United States, civil or military, and, as such officers, took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and all who were at any time members of any State Legislature, or executive or judicial officers of any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or gave aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; and all who have been convicted of felony against the laws of any State or of the United States, are disfranchised.

"No one is disfranchised for participation in rebellion, unless he previously held some one of the offices above named.

"The following will be regarded as executive and judicial officers of the State of Virginia, within the meaning of the law, viz: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Second Auditor, Register of the Land Office, State Treasurer, Attorney General, Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals, Judges of the Circuit Courts, Judge of the Court of Hustings, Justices of the County Courts, Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of any city or incorporated town, who are ex officio Justices, Coroners of towns and counties, Escheators, Inspectors of tobacco, flour and other commodities.

"All persons who voluntarily joined the rebel army, and all persons in that army, whether volunteers or conscripts, who committed voluntarily any hostile act, thereby engaged in insurrection or rebellion. Any person, however, who was forced into the rebel army, but avoided, as far as possible, cannot be said to have engaged in the rebellion.

"All who exercised the functions of any office under the Confederate Government, or the government of any one of the Confederate States, which functions were of a nature to aid in prosecuting the war, or maintaining the hostile character of those governments, and all who voted for the ordinance of secession, engaged in the rebellion or gave aid and comfort to the enemy.

"Those who voluntarily furnished supplies of food, clothing, arms, ammunition, horses or mules, or any other material of war, or labor, or service of any kind, to the Confederate military or naval forces, or money by loan or otherwise, to the Confederate Government, or aided in any way the raising, organization or equipment of troops, gave aid and comfort to the enemy, and participated in the rebellion and treason against the United States."

How General Meagher Fell.—The San Francisco Monitor has received from Montana some authentic particulars of General Meagher's death, which it publishes tho more willingly it says as reports injurious to the memory of the dead have already been circulated, even in some journals, asserting that he committed suicide while under the influence of wild excitement. Gen. Meagher, as his friends can testify, was never subject to such paroxysms, and in a letter written only a few hours before his melancholy death, he spoke cheerfully of his expected return home in course of a few days. He had ridden some thirty miles on horseback across the dry plains to Fort Benton, and in conversation with a friend a short time before his death, exhibited no appearance of excitement. He afterwards wrote home to his family, and being somewhat fatigued, retired to a one room on the river steamboat for the night, as there are no hotels at Fort Benton. The guard rails of the steamer had been partially broken away a short time before, so that there were none in front of his state room. About 10 P. M. he got up and stepped out on the deck in his nightclothes. In doing so his foot struck against a coil of rope, which made him stumble; and being unable to recover his balance, he fell into the river, which runs with great rapidity.

Some of the deck hands ran up with lights at the noise of his fall into the water, but only in time to see him swept away by the rushing waters, in which he disappeared ere an effort could be made to save him. The brave soldier, the brilliant orator, the man who led the glorious Irish Brigade through the bloodiest battles of the war, who faced death scores of times in the thick of battle and in a British Court, had found a grave beneath the swift waters of the lonely Missouri.

Characteristic.—The Watertown (N. Y.) Reformer says:

A few days since, a small, fine looking, bright boy came into the cars and took a seat. Shortly after a minister came in and took a seat before and facing him, when the following conversation ensued:

"Well, my little lad, what is your name?" said the minister.

"My name is James Foot, what is yours?"

"William Hand," was the answer. "Where are you going?" asked the minister.

"To Rome, sir; and where are you going?" was the response of the boy.

The minister could do no less than answer, "To Camden. How old are you?" was the next question of the minister.

"Eight years," replied the boy; "how old are you, sir?"

The minister hesitated, but gave an answer.

"Are you alone?" was the next question of the minister.

"Oh, no," said the boy, pointing to the passengers, "I have plenty of company."

"But have you no friend on board to look after you?" asked the minister.

"No, sir," said the boy, "have you?"

This was not answered, but followed by a little history.

"When I was a little boy," said the minister, "my parents would not allow me to go off the farm alone."

At this the boy, with an indescribable look, said, "it is different now."

The Sweetwater Mines.—The Austin Reveille of July 27th, thus refers to these mines and the difficulty of working them:

The inevitable red man has already appeared on the scene to dispute the right of the pale face to mine over his hunting grounds, with the inexorable argument of bullet and scalping knife. The Salt Lake Vedette of the 24th instant contains the following dispatch dated South Pass, July 22d: "I had located some claims when all hands were driven out by the Indians. Lawrence was killed and scalped. Toney, Schell and Orrin Taylor are missing. Twenty head of stock were driven off." The Vedette adds that it learned "that the Indians appeared in numbers, and were Crows, Shoshones and Sioux, who evinced a determination to put a stop to mining in that region." A private letter from Salt Lake City, dated the 23d inst., says that Porter Rockwell had returned from the Sweetwater and reported that the mines were the "richest and prettiest he had ever seen, but that the right kind of men to work gold mines had not got in there yet." But he said that "mining was up for the present on account of the Indians." The miners had all been driven away by the Indians, and had gone to the telegraph station, about twelve miles distant. Of course the reports of the numbers that had gone to the mines have been greatly exaggerated, for hundreds—to say nothing of thousands—of American armed miners would not have been driven off by any number of Indians.

A Hundred Years Ago.—A hundred years ago there was not a white man in Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois or Indiana Territories. Then what is now, the most flourishing part of America, was no more known than the mountain of the moon.

It was not till 1760 that the hunter of Kentucky, the gallant and adventurous Daniel Boone, left his home in North Carolina to become the first settler in Kentucky. The first pioneer of Ohio did not settle till twenty years afterward.

A hundred years ago Frederick the Great of Prussia was performing those exploits which made him immortal in military annals and with his little monarchy was sustaining a single handed contest with Russia, Austria and France, the three great powers of Europe, combined.

A hundred years ago the United States were the most loyal people of the British Empire, and on the political horizon no speck indicated the struggle which a hundred years thereafter established the greatest republic in the world.

A hundred years ago Canada belonged to France, and the whole population of the United States did not exceed a million and a half.

One hundred years ago there were but four newspapers in the United States—with a combined circulation not exceeding 2,000. Steam engines and cylinder presses had not been imagined, and railroads and telegraphs had not entered the remotest conception of man.

Mrs. Lincoln.—The Milwaukee Wisconsin says: "Mrs. Lincoln is now in Racine, boarding at Congress Hall. She is simply spending the Summer there. She dresses in deep mourning, does not receive company, nor appear at the common table. It is not true that she intends making her home there. Her two sons are now in Washington attending the Surratt trial."
